

J. Paul and Eleanor McIntosh Scholarship Endowment

J. Paul and Eleanor McIntosh believe in the effect a caring adult can have on the life of a young adult and the power of a good education. As a former NPS teacher and guidance counselor, J. Paul witnessed firsthand the full potential of young people in Norfolk schools. He and Eleanor wish to foster that potential through a scholarship endowment for NHS graduates.

Must be used for remission of tuition, fees, room, or board. This scholarship will be awarded upon notification of acceptance prior to the beginning of the first semester of the academic year.

Selection Criteria:

1. Financial need will be a considered.
2. All are encouraged to apply. Those attending Northeast Community College will be given primary consideration.
3. A detailed written recommendation from a NHS Guidance Counselor is required. The recommendation should focus on the future potential of the student and how this scholarship can help this student.
4. Must write a personal essay (see application).
5. GPA of 78% or higher
6. Selection will be made by the NPSF Scholarship Committee.
