

Ralph T., Florence M., Jennie & Edna Walker Memorial Scholarship

Ralph Walker and his sisters Jennie and Edna Walker were born in Kansas but later made their homes in Norfolk. Ralph married Florence in 1920 and they moved to Norfolk in 1938. He was a school superintendent in Kansas for 16 years then entered the insurance field in 1935. In Norfolk, he established Bankers Life of Nebraska Agency and continued with the company until retiring in 1958. Ralph's sister, Jennie, was a math teacher for 42 years at Norfolk High School. She retired in 1968 and passed away in 1991. The Walker family was active and involved in many aspects of the community. Their love for quality education founded this memorial scholarship.
